

Be Sure to Visit "The Power of Pictures: Celebrating New Hampshire Illustrators" exhibit at the Sharon Arts Center May 4th through May 26th • Open 10 – 6 Festival Day

Sharon Arts Center invites you to view and experience a special exhibition of work by New Hampshire illustrators in their downtown gallery. The exhibition features dozens of original illustrations and earlier drafts by regional artists Erick Ingraham, Beth Krommes, Lita Judge, Kim Cunningham, and Marty Kelley. Come learn about the process of transforming stories into visual images. Explore original works on loan from KSC festival gallery by renowned illustrators Eric Carle and Tomie dePaola and many more. See "Other Venues" for information about the opportunity to meet Lita Judge who will be on hand to launch her newest book, One Thousand Tracings.

PARADE OF GIANT PUPPETS

Participants congregate at 11:45 at the PES parking lot. At noon, the parade will process down Main Street, onto Grove Street, and into Putnam Park. Purchase the video of "Giant Puppets come to The Children And The Arts Festival" at the Toadstool or through Barn Door Video Productions, Box 64, Dublin NH 03444 (603)563-8431.

RELATED ARTS FESTIVAL EVENTS

May 11th at 7:30PM in the Town Hall
Trash Can Lid Productions and Conval High School
Present "Turning Junk Into Funk"

For the first time this festival has sponsored an artistic residency with Jeff Erwin from Trash Can Lid Productions for Conval students. Come listen to four different high school groups as they play their high energy and lively trash can music created during the past week from this exceptional residency.

Children's Art Across the Globe

Mariposa Museum & World Cultures devotes its May gallery to murals created by children in Taiwan, Ukraine and Vietnam for exchange with American schools.

The Peterborough Children's Choir presents "One Song, Many Voices"

In partnership with The Park Theater of Jaffrey and to celebrate Children and the Arts Day, the PCC and Maria Belva present the 10th Annual Spring Concert on Friday, May 18th at 7PM at the Peterborough Town House. Tickets are $10 adults / $5 children. The concert will feature performances by the three different PCC sections, and will include many former choir members joining the current choirs onstage for a grand finale of favorites from the past decade.

Cobblestone Open House

Come explore the art of Cobblestone Publishing. Meet and draw with noted illustrator/artist Annette Cate as well as the editors of our 6 magazines. Free giveaways and drawing lessons. We're right upstairs from Sharon Arts. Follow the signs. Hours 10 to 11:30 and 1 to 2:30.

"Our Towns, Our Places: What's your connection?"

Be sure to check out the hundreds of brightly colored fabric streamers hanging all over town. They represent children's personal expressions recalling a favorite place in their community. You can make your own streamer in front of the Unitarian Church to add to the installation.

Don't miss the interactive installation piece created by the Conval Art Club in front of the Historical Society.

★ Thanks to Our Contributors ★

As the Festival has grown over the last fourteen years, so has the generosity of businesses, individuals, and organizations in the area. In addition, our thanks go out to each and every student, performer, artist, teacher, parent, and volunteer who has made this year's Arts Festival possible. We thank you all!
